MENTIONS ET RESTRICTIONS

On page 100, the author writes: "The author of the book is not a professional writer, but a professional engineer. The book is not a technical manual, but a professional engineer's notebook. The book is not a professional engineer's notebook, but a professional engineer's notebook." This is a very interesting statement, as it suggests that the book is a professional engineer's notebook, which is a very different perspective from the one presented in the book. The author is a professional engineer, and the book is a professional engineer's notebook. This is a very interesting statement, as it suggests that the book is a professional engineer's notebook, which is a very different perspective from the one presented in the book.
