Notes and additional information

- 1) Your current Driver's licence and/or Health card is valid.
- 2) We will continue to process your online request. However, you may experience longer than usual delivery times due to potential mail service delivery delays.
- 3) Do not visit a ServiceOntario centre even if you have not received your new driver's licence or health card in the mail by the date indicated in your renewal confirmation or 5 days before your expiry date. You will receive your new driver's licence and health card in the mail.

Additional information

Your driver's licence always remains subject to any limitations or restrictions that affect your privilege to drive. If at the time of this renewal transaction or at any time thereafter, your driver's licence was or later becomes cancelled or suspended, the licence remains cancelled or suspended despite the completion of this renewal transaction.

To get help:

For information on how to obtain a refund, cancellation and return policy, please call ServiceOntario at 416-235-2999 (GTA) or toll-free at 1-800-387-3445 (Canada).

If your transaction has failed:

If you have paid by Interac Online and your transaction has failed, it may take up to 30 days to reverse the charges. If you have paid by credit card and your transaction has failed, you may see a charge and a reversal. Your card has not actually been charged. It may take up to 5 business days to receive the reversal. We apologize for the inconvenience.

Request an alternate format document:

Accessible documents and communication supports for any Ontario government document or information will be provided upon request. Please visit ServiceOntario.ca or call us toll-free at 1-800-668-9938 or TTY toll-free 1-800-268-7095 to request an alternate.
